Mrs. Anne Utter
54 Elm Street
Westerly, Rhode Island 02891

Dear Mrs. Utter:

Many thanks for your good letter informing me of the Community Chorus' exciting trip to England in August 1981. What a thrill it will be to perform in King's College Chapel and Ely Cathedral!

I know that Alexander Crary of my staff has already spoken with you once about this trip and I have asked him to keep in touch with you and lend all possible assistance.

In the meantime I have checked with the International Communications Agency to learn that Mr. Christopher Snow is currently the cultural attache at the American Embassy in London. He should be able to give you some guidance as to possible additional locations for performances in England. You can contact him by writing the American Embassy, London, England.

With warm regards.

Ever sincere

Claiborne Pell
